

My name is Maria Ramirez and graduated from Oregon State's construction engineering program in 2016. I worked in the commercial construction sector for 2 years before hopping over to the consulting side of the industry. I am currently with David Evans and Associates based out of their Portland office. Since joining DEA I have worked with on two different TriMet teams and just started working on the ODOT/OR owners team on the I5-Rose Quarter expansion project.