

Stephanie Kreidler graduated from UConn in 2020 with a degree in Civil Engineering. Over the summer she participated in the Sikorsky Internship program as a Rotor Design Engineer where she was later offered a full-time job. She has been working as a full-time design engineer for a year and a half, working on helicopters including the s92 commercial helicopter, the h92 Canadian helicopter and the black hawk!