

My name is Alexandra Aponte and I studied Chemical Engineering at the University of Connecticut, Class of 2020. I am from Caguas, Puerto Rico, but moved to Connecticut when I got my job after graduating as a Manufacturing Engineer at Pfizer. I have a 1-year-old puppy named Micaela (I named her after my favorite salsa song). I like going on hikes, dancing, and trying new food placed with my friends.